

You're Invited to a Free Certificate Training Series Provided by The Utah Customized Employment Initiative

The Utah Division of Services for People with Disabilities & Griffin-Hammis Associates is sponsoring a six-session year-long training series resulting in an optional National Certification in Community Employment Services through the Association of Community Rehabilitation Educators (ACRE). The project is working closely with both Covenant Employment Services and Rise, Inc.

Training Session #1: November 14, 2012. An Introduction to Customized Employment Strategies introduces these topics: Guiding Values, Amalgamated Funding Strategies, Discovery, Employer Negotiation, Natural Workplace Supports, Rural & Urban Job Development, and Self-Employment. This training series concentrates on tactics useful in assisting individuals with complex barriers to employment. Subsequent training sessions will explore each of these topics, and more, in depth.

We'll start Promptly at 8:30 am and end at 4:00 pm. Morning Refreshments provided free. Lunch on your Own. Extensive Materials will be provided.

Who Should Attend? Front-Line Employment Staff, Vocational Counselors, Educators, Case Managers, Employment Stakeholders, Employment seekers & Family members

Up-Coming Training Sessions include: Discovering Personal Genius/Functional Assessment; Systematic Instruction & Worksite Support Design; Creative Job Development & Interest-Based Negotiation; Social Security Work Incentives; Small Business Development
